attached to the Madras Law College is reported to be retain Hospital or desirable. This [illegible] may be recorded and the matter dropped. A few of the Scholarships now allowed are no doubt high but there seems to be a widespread misprepsion that the time has not yet arrived for a reduction of the same. My own opinion is that the maximum emolument of house rent allowed as early as possible be brought down to Rs 10. The monthly competition Prizes are a small feature the discontinuance of which in the near future may be expected to become desirable.

The Lady Dufferin Committee seems to reflect the opinion of the Committee & I am afraid no useful purpose would be served by [illegible] a formal reference to that body of

SIR,

Invited to Dewan on auction termination

With reference to the concluding sentence of para 3 of Order No 6041 3/Ed 36 03 dated 17th January 1905 I have the honour to enclose herewith a list of the scholarships granted by the Lady Superintendent of the Maharanes College The whole of the available amount of Rs 642 for scholarships has been utilised by her On my enquiring whether the scholarships from Standard V to the Infant classes as well as the monthly competetive prizes which I believe are given for regular attendance may not be abolished the Lady Superintendent replies that all the scholarship holders from Standard V to the Infant Standard are widows with only two exceptions, one of whom is a teacher on leave from the Malavalli Girls' School

School and the other is a grown up pupil The Lady Superintendent is of opinion that the giving of competitive prizes rests on a sound principle, that the advantages of so doing have been proved, and that they should therefore not be abolished" The Lady Superintendent does not see her way to suggesting either any reduction in the scale of scholarships or any savings on the whole amount

2 Under these circumstances if Government are of opinion still that the number and amounts of the scholarships should be reduced I request that the question of reduction may be kindly referred to the President of the Committee of the Maharanas College

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
